INSTRUCTIONS
INTEGRA POWER SUPPLY
FAIRCHILD MODEL 667

Several power supplies are available to satisfy the design needs of engineers using FAIRCHILD INTEGRA components. These range from units large enough to supply an entire console, to units capable of supplying several INTEGRA components.

The MODEL 667 POWER SUPPLY is capable of operating 20 662 type pre/line amplifiers (or 100 672 or 676 preamps) plus handling 25 LUMITENS and a combination of 25 Model 663 compressors, 673 DYNALIZERS or 661 AUTO-TENS and 675 DE-ESSERS.

The MODEL 667 POWER SUPPLY has a well regulated 18V DC supply capable of delivering 2 amps with less than .0005V ripple. The output is fused and the unit has an ON/OFF switch and pilot light. DC output is ungrounded for greater versatility.

The MODEL 667 POWER SUPPLY also supplies 6.3V AC at 10 amps.

The MODEL 667 is 3 7/8" h x 13 9/16"D x 10 3/16" W. It can be rack mounted.

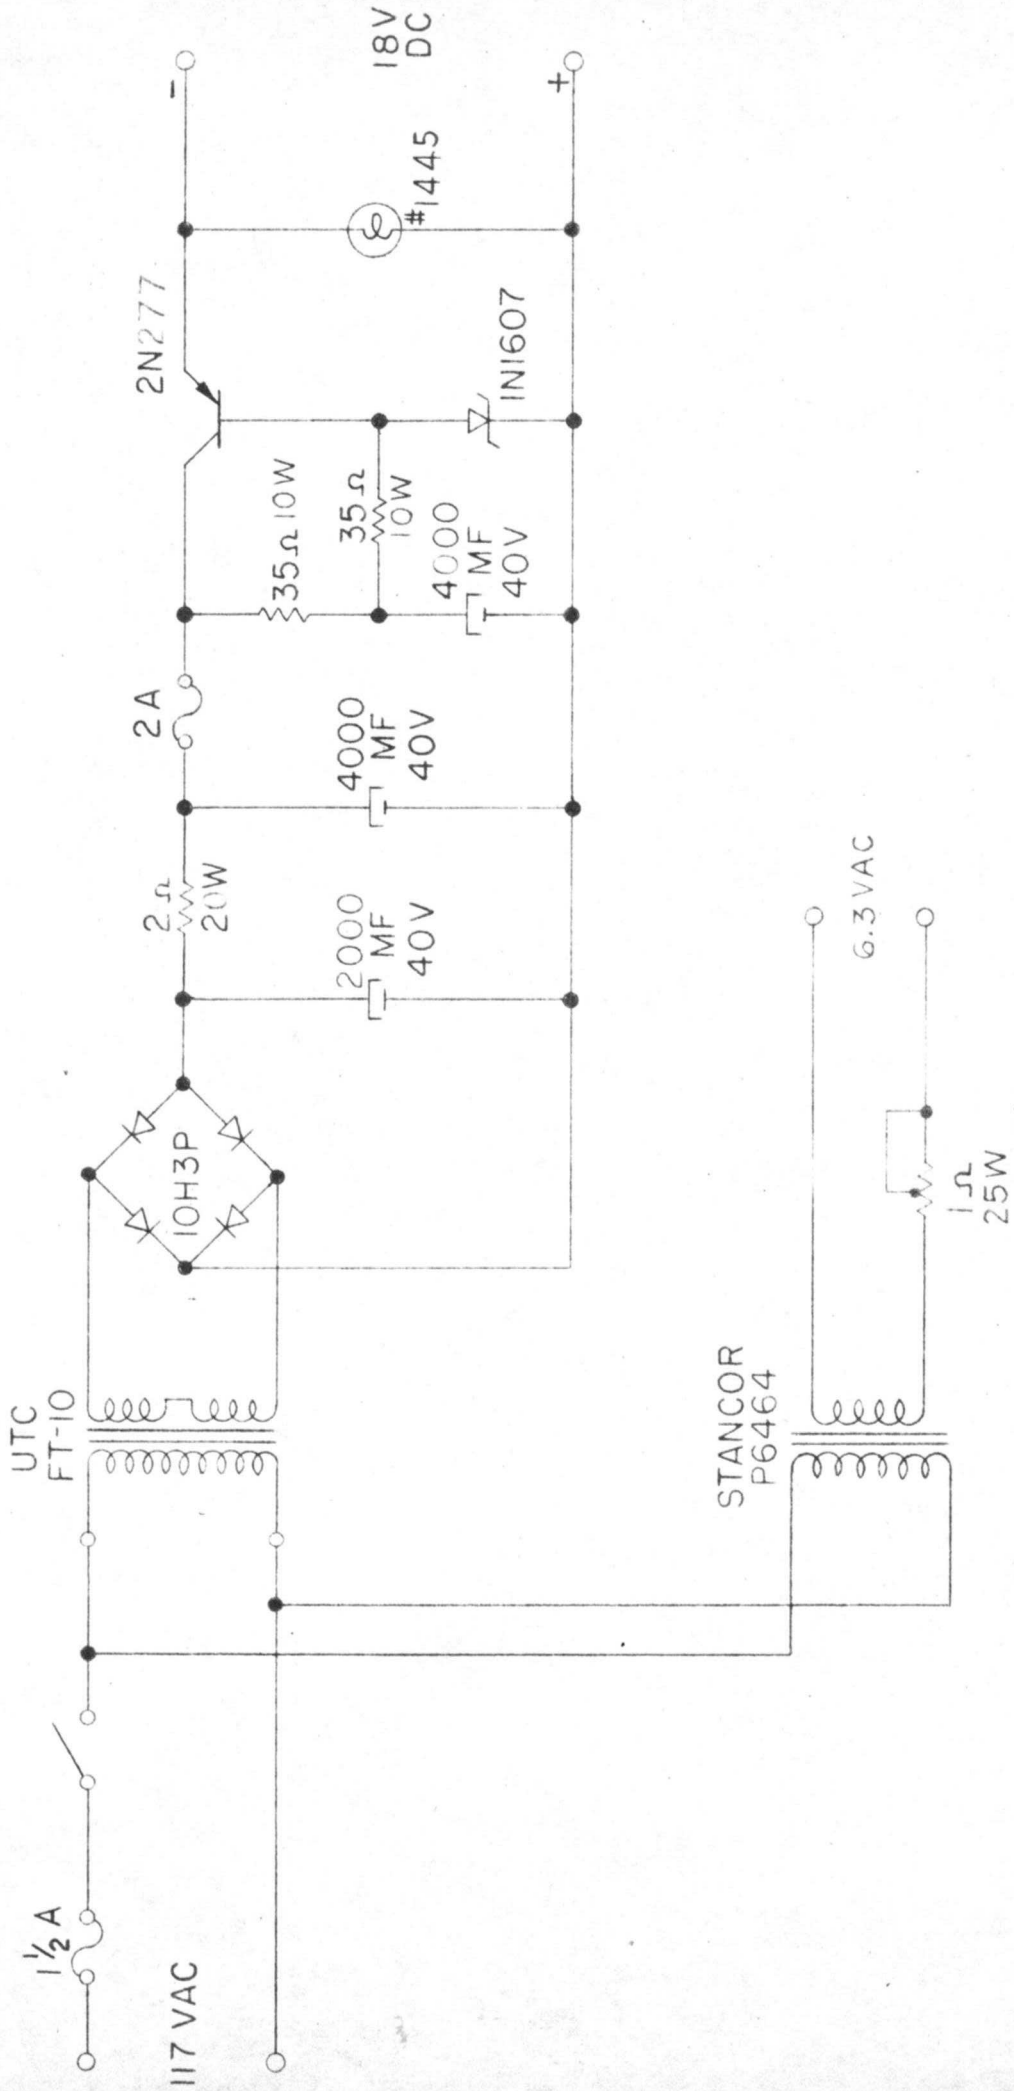

All connecting points are properly identified on the rear of the unit.

WARRANTY POLICY

PRIOR TO DELIVERY

FAIRCHILD RECORDING EQUIPMENT CORPORATION reserves the right to modify the specifications or to incorporate modifications or revisions to the equipment deemed to be in the best interest of overall performance of the equipment as determined by FAIRCHILD RECORDING EQUIPMENT CORPORATION.

AFTER DELIVERY

FAIRCHILD's warranty obligation will be to replace all parts proven to be defective during the warranty period. The warranty period shall be for a period of 90 days from the date of delivery of the equipment to the buyer. All parts proven defective during this period will be replaced by FAIRCHILD.

All equipment that requires factory service under the warranty must be shipped to FAIRCHILD RECORDING EQUIPMENT CORPORATION at 10-40 45th Avenue, Long Island City, New York (11101) prepaid, after requesting factory authorization to return.

Replaced parts shall carry the remaining period of unexpired and/or unused warranty period.

FAIRCHILD RECORDING EQUIPMENT CORPORATION shall not be liable for loss or injury, direct or indirect, arising out of the use or the inability to use the purchased FAIRCHILD equipment.

No statement other than those contained in the instruction manual, the regular sales bulletins or this warranty policy shall have any force or effect unless signed by an officer of FAIRCHILD RECORDING EQUIPMENT CORPORATION.

The warranty period of 90 days applies to all parts of the equipment, but it shall not be honored by FAIRCHILD RECORDING EQUIPMENT CORPORATION unless warranty is validated within 10 days after delivery. Complete and return the warranty registration provided.
