NOTE: a wide and complete variety of equipment needed to complete any transmitter installation is available through CBG and its district managers. Rigid line and coax, fittings, monitor equipment for AM, FM and stereo and SCA, tower lighting, STL and wire remote control systems, can be ordered from CBG. The manufacturers of these accessory items are only those known throughout the industry as reputable makers of top-quality equipment. Please ask your CBG district manager for makers, models, and prices.

Cetec Jampro FM Antennas, Services and Options

Parasitic elements for both horizontal and vertical polarization are used. All elements are galvanized and furnished with stainless steel hardware, with complete installation instructions, together with a measured field pattern.

An additional charge is made when towers must be made up for these tests, unless the customer furnishes the tower or pole. Tighter circularities of + 3 dB for towers, and + 2 dB for poles are also available; prices below apply only when towers or poles are on hand for + 4 dB circularities.

You may not know that Cetec is one of the major producers of radio broadcast equipment.

Maybe you should.

Cetec Corporation's major divisions in the broadcast equipment business are now united to meet your expanding needs! The specialists that make up the Cetec Broadcast Group are:

Cetec Schafer. The World renowned leader in radio automation, with a tradition of quality and rugged dependability. Schafer manufactures a wide line of automation for every format and station size . . . all with features that you won't find anywhere else.

Cetec Sparta. The people with a new generation of transmitters including both AM and FM all-solid state models. Sparta is also the recognized value leader in audio consoles, with a size to fit every application and every budget.

Cetec Jampro. The antenna specialists with circular FM antennas for every power level . . . each with performance specifications second-to-none. Jampro is now the company with a circular TV antenna for either VHF or UHF, too!

The Cetec Broadcast Group now has a nationwide network of factory-direct District Managers who are ready to help you choose the right equipment for your needs. One of them is close to you. For his name, or for specific product information, call (805) 968-1561, or write:
